

Cleaner

Oak Hill College is a theological college that serves the church of Jesus Christ by equipping men and women for a lifetime of ministry in a diverse and changing world.

We have an excellent opportunity to join our Housekeeping team as a cleaner. You will contribute effectively as a member of the team and ensure that the campus is kept to a high level of cleanliness. This includes an 18th Century Grade 2 Listed Building; 21st Century Academic block; 60+ houses/flats for accommodating student and staff families.

The Opportunity

We are looking for someone who wants to make a difference in their working environment. If you are enthusiastic and have great attention to detail you'll fit in perfectly with our team.

This role allows you the opportunity to work in a supportive, and friendly environment, all within a beautiful 60-acre parkland campus.

About Us

Oak Hill College is a theological college based in a picturesque setting in North London which aims to help prepare students for Christian ministry. Founded in 1932 by Charles Baring Young, a deeply committed educationalist and philanthropist, the College offers courses from Level 4 (CertHE) to Level 7 (Postgraduate). We have a partner who validates the College's academic provision, and its programmes offer vocational training for a range of ministries in Anglican and Independent churches in the UK and overseas.

We have a wonderful community spirit in the way in which we look after our students and our staff. This is an excellent opportunity to join a Christian college that really values its staff.

Hours: Part Time – 15 hrs per week, 52 weeks per annum. Hours - Monday to Friday, 6am to 9am. Although you may have to work additional hours as reasonably required.

Location: Free on-site parking.

Salary: £13.15 per hour, with a generous matched pension scheme. We also have a life assurance scheme.

Start Date: 2nd December or soon thereafter
