9. Criteria for Admission to the Programme

The normal entrance requirement is a UK Honours degree in Theology (classified 2.2 or above). Normally, broader degrees in Religious Studies and other subjects will not provide an adequate grounding for this programme. Students without a degree in Theology may qualify for admission if they are able to demonstrate both academic ability and sufficient other theological background.

Students wishing to take certain modules in Biblical Studies as part of their programme must demonstrate a proficiency in Greek or Hebrew at least to the standard of the pre-requisites identified for the relevant Oak Hill modules (as noted on the Module Narratives).

Students must also satisfy the College that they have a sufficient command of spoken and written English to meet the demands of the programme. We require all overseas students or those whose first language is not English to take the British Council IELTS test and achieve a score of 7.0 or above, with no less than 6.5 in any individual category.

Applications should be made through the Admissions Office. Exceptions to the normal entrance requirements are possible but rare, and are made by the Academic Vice Principal in consultation with the Admissions Office and the Director of Postgraduate Studies.

10. Aims of the Programme

The programme aims to:

- Enable students to focus in appropriate depth on particular aspects of biblical, theological, pastoral and/or cross-cultural studies in which they have a prior interest; or enable students to explore new areas within the discipline, building on their prior knowledge and experience;
- Provide opportunity for students to reflect upon and integrate their prior theological studies and their experience of Christian ministry in the process of engaging critically with new learnings and to model this in the way in which teaching and learning are provided;
- Provide students with a range of biblical, theological and pastoral studies at postgraduate level, which are at, or informed by, the forefront of those fields of study;
- Strengthen and sharpen students' intellectual and practical skills and develop in them the graces of the Christian theologian in order that they should be more effective in Christian ministry;
- Develop students as lifelong theological learners and equip them to harness and apply the fruits of such theological study in their diverse ministries;
- (Where desired) provide an opportunity for sustained reflection on and engagement with a theological or ministerial topic through an independent research project.

11. Programme Outcomes

A. Knowledge and Understanding

On completion of this programme the successful student will have:

- A1 An advanced and thorough understanding of parts of Scripture, their relation to the whole, and how to interpret them
- A2 An advanced understanding of the interconnectedness of the various elements within the study of biblical studies and theology
- A3 A thorough understanding of the methodological, philosophical and hermeneutical models and assumptions used in the study of theology

Teaching/Learning Methods

Students may gain knowledge and understanding through some of the following:

- Lectures: giving overall perspective; exemplary discussions of a topic; models for considering and assessing different views of a subject; and explanations of complicated material;
- Accompanying handouts;
- Interaction in the form of questions, discussion, dialogue and argument;
- Guided independent reading, some of which is subsequently discussed in class;
- Student-led seminars with questions and discussion;
- Practical exercises and simulations;
- Problem analysis, case studies and role play;
- Translation and exegetical exercises in class;
- Appropriate use of technology such as language software, keeping a blog etc.;
- Discussion of primary and secondary texts;
- Fieldwork and study trips;
- Organising an event and reflecting on it;
- Individual written (and at times oral) feedback on written work;
- The formative dimension of assessment.

	Assessment Method Students' knowledge and understanding are assessed by a combination of unseen written exams; assessed coursework in the form of essays, assignments, student-led seminars/presentations, and book reviews; exegesis; language tests/translation; fieldwork reports; group work; and (where relevant) personal research.
B. Cognitive (Thinking) Skills On completion of this programme the successful student will be able to: B1 Critically and reflectively evaluate advanced scholarship in the theological disciplines, applying a variety of critical methods, assessing views and theories and, where appropriate, proposing alternatives B2 Construct and articulate an integrative, coherent, well-informed, critically-engaged and sustained argument and develop original application of the knowledge and understanding it contains B3 Engage and interact at a high level with the material/subjects studied, demonstrating an ability to reflect critically on their own particular standpoint and to understand the methodological and hermeneutical issues involved	Teaching/Learning Methods Students learn cognitive skills through the teaching and learning methods outlined above. Each module, whatever the format of the teaching, involves discussion of key issues in order to develop the intellectual skills described. Additional methods of particular importance in the development of these intellectual skills are the deliberate modelling of these skills in lectures and classes; the individual feedback given on class contributions and assessed work; and provision of special sessions on research skills and methodologies. Moreover, a number of the teaching and learning methods mentioned above are employed with the intention that they should especially contribute to the development of these skills. These include guided independent reading; student-led seminars/presentations with questions and discussion; practical exercises/simulations; problem analysis; class reading and discussion of primary and secondary texts; language work/translation; and role play. Assessment Method The various assessment methods employed (see 'Knowledge and Understanding' – Assessment) all place great emphasis, as shown in the assessment criteria, on the learner's ability to demonstrate these skills. Both written pieces (e.g. essays, written examinations) and oral presentations (e.g. student-led seminars, group activities) provide a vehicle for the demonstration of these skills.
C. Practical Skills On completion of the programme the successful student will be able to: C1 Articulate systematic and creative responses to typical issues arising in Christian theology and ministry, whether nationally, internationally or cross-culturally	Teaching/Learning Methods Students learn practical skills across the teaching programme. With regard to project work, students receive research skills training along with (where relevant) training in the principles of ethical research and one-on-one tutorial supervision. Growing originality in the application of knowledge

C2 Communicate those responses clearly to specialist and non-specialist audiences, using an appropriate range of media C3 Take responsibility for their own independent learning, and be able and willing to learn new skills as part of a commitment to lifelong learning C4 [Where relevant]: Understand any ethical issues raised by their research and comply with relevant codes of practice	is modelled by Faculty; forms a key dimension in class discussions and debates; is cultivated in simulations, practical exercises and problem analysis; and constitutes a major component of the formative objectives of assessment. Assessment Method Students' practical skills are assessed by essay, exam, student-led seminars, group activities, and individual research projects. Where relevant, their grasp of the ethical dimension of research is assessed through an ethical clearance procedure.

12. Programme Structure (Levels, Modules, Credits and Progression Requirements)
12.1 Overall Structure of the Programme The PGCert is a postgraduate qualification of 60 credits, comprising two taught modules, worth 30 credits each. It may be completed either as a full-time or part-time programme. If full-time, the maximum period of registration will be one academic year consisting of three terms; if part-time, the maximum period of registration will be six academic terms and an intervening summer period. Students taking the PGCert may, if desired, complete an Independent Research Project worth 30 credits as their 'elective' module; however, they are not required to do so.

12.2 Levels and Modules Starting in academic year 2010/11 the University is changing the way it references modules to state the level of study in which these are delivered. This is to comply with the national Framework for Higher Education Qualifications. This implementation will be a gradual process whilst records are updated. Therefore the old coding is bracketed below.
Level 7 (4)
Students must take all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BD6.4 (30 credits) • EITHER 1 further elective taught module (30 credits) OR RP6.6 Independent Research Project (30 credits) • Postgraduate Research Seminars (non-credit-bearing) 	If an elective taught module is chosen, then it must be at 6.x (Specialist Master's) Level, namely one of: BD6.2, BD6.3, BS6.8, BS6.9, CW6.2, CW6.3, DW6.1, DW6.2, RP6.7 or RP6.8	The pass mark is 12 on the postgraduate 15-point scale (see Appendix B for an explanation of grades)

12.3 Non-Compensatable Modules (note statement in 12.2 regarding FHEQ levels)

All modules for the PGCert are non-compensatable.

See attached.

14. Information about Assessment Regulations

See the current Student Programme Handbook, the latest edition of the Guidelines Booklet and the 'Progression Requirements' noted above.

15. Placement Opportunities, Requirements and Support (if applicable)

Not applicable.

16. Future Careers (if applicable)

Christian ministry of various kinds (pastoral ministry, missions, counselling, youth work etc.) or progression towards academic teaching and research; to assist with identification of future careers and/or continuing personal/professional development, all postgraduates will take part in regular Personal Development Planning with their Personal Tutor or other appointed member of Faculty.

17. Particular Support for Learning (if applicable)

- Extensive theological library (24-hour access to over 55,000 volumes) and online access to journals and e-books
- IT resources: email, virtual learning environment, CD-Rom resources, Internet, off-site access to EBSCO database and other journal suppliers
- Monthly postgraduate research seminars
- (Where required) tuition sessions on postgraduate research skills
- (Where required) one-to-one independent research project supervisions
- Special provision for students with specific learning difficulties or whose first language is not English: see Student Programme Handbook for details

18. JACS Code (or other relevant coding system)	V600 Theology & Religious Studies (JACS 3.0)
19. Relevant QAA Subject Benchmark Group(s)	Theology & Religious Studies

20. Reference Points
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bloom's Taxonomy of Educational Objectives – cognitive domains • The UK Quality Code for Higher Education • The Framework for Higher Education Qualifications • Subject Benchmark Statement for Theology & Religious Studies • Quality Assurance Agency (QAA) Master's Degree Characteristics • Quality in Formation Panel of the Archbishops' Council (Church of England) • Church of England's Quality Advisor (reporting to the Quality in Formation Panel) • Middlesex University Learning & Quality Enhancement Handbook • Oak Hill College Learning, Teaching & Assessment Strategy • Review events for the PGDip, MA and MTheol awards • Student, Staff, External Examiner and Graduates' feedback and comments (particularly through Assessment Board, Academic Board and the Courses Evaluation Committee)

21. Other Information
The PGCert is closely related both to the PGDip in Theology (120 credits) and to the MA in Theology (180 credits): a PGDip or MA student who passes two taught modules (60 credits), including the core module BD6.4, but who does not meet the remaining programme requirements for the PGDip or the MA may be awarded a PGCert as an exit qualification. Conversely, on application to the Admissions Office, the Academic Vice Principal and the Director of Postgraduate Studies, a PGCert student may be allowed to 'top-up' to registration for the PGDip or the MA in Theology. There are strict deadlines for such an application, in particular for the MA, since a successful student needs to meet timing requirements for preparation of the MA dissertation package. Any student previously registered for the PGDip or MA in Theology but awarded the PGCert as an exit qualification may not subsequently apply to 'top-up' again to the PGDip or the MA.

Please Note: Programme Specifications provide a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve if s/he takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information about the programme can be found in the rest of your Programme Handbook and the University Regulations.

Appendix B: Progressive Marking Scheme for Written Coursework and Examinations at Level 7

The structure of the mark scheme:

The scheme covers different aspects of a piece of work, from reading and research, through argumentation to presentational standards. Key criteria include: organisation; method; relevance; coverage of data; coverage of concepts; coverage of views; argumentation; independent judgement; writing style; presentation and apparatus.

The use of the mark scheme:

- This scheme will be used in marking both written coursework and written examinations in all 5.x and 6.x modules, except for dissertations and for modules or part-modules which consist of language work. For dissertations it is used in conjunction with the dissertation mark sheet. Obviously not all of the criteria will be applicable to both the coursework and examination elements of assessment. Apparatus, for example, is not assessed in examinations.
- The mark scheme is to serve as an agreed guide for markers, and will be applied at the discretion of markers in the light of judgements made about suitable expectations for a particular piece of work. In some coursework, for example, there may be much less taught material or reading available than in others, and the scheme is intended to allow markers the flexibility to recognize such differing expectations. It is intended to guide marking, not to hold it to ransom. In particular, a marker will exercise his/her discretion in determining the weight between the criteria evident in a particular piece of work for determining the final mark.
- The criteria will be used cumulatively, so that a Level 7 piece of work will be required to meet the relevant positive criteria for work done at Levels 4, 5 and 6.
